

IEC Young Professionals Programme 2016

Standards Australia is excited to give Australians the opportunity to attend this unique program and is inviting interested young professionals to apply.

About the Program

The Young Professionals Programme brings together the world's upcoming expert engineers, technicians and managers. It provides them with more opportunities to shape the future of international standardization and conformity assessment in the field of electrotechnology.

The programme begins with a workshop for Young Professionals at the IEC General Meeting, 10-12 October 2016 in Frankfurt, Germany.

Two participants from Australia will be selected, with accommodation and airfare costs covered by the IEC and Standards Australia.

To be eligible, applicants must:

- Be aged between mid-20s to mid-30s;
- Be an active committee member of an Australian IEC mirror committee, relevant working group, or a young professional interested in IEC standards;
- Demonstrate experience of developing or using standards or conformity assessment;
- Work for a business, industry, association, education or government body that is using, benefiting from or contributing to the IEC's work.

Further information can be found on the IEC website.

How to Apply

Interested applicants will be required to submit a CV and a video (maximum 3 minutes) addressing the following prompt:

How can IEC and Australian Standards support innovation and emerging technologies in the energy and electrotechnology sector?

Submissions will be judged by a panel of the Australian National Committee of the IEC and Standards Australia.

The video can be uploaded via a variety of methods:

1. www.dropbox.com with a link provided in your emailed application;
2. <https://www.wetransfer.com>;
3. <https://www.hightail.com>; or
4. By mailing a physical CD or USB containing the video to us. Our postal address is GPO Box 476 Sydney NSW 2001. The envelope should be addressed to Standards Australia's Young Leaders.

By submitting your video you agree that you have read and accepted the Terms and Conditions for Young Professionals Applications**

Please send submissions to Young.Leaders@standards.org.au.

Submissions close on Thursday 23 June 2016. Applicants will be notified of the final result by mid July 2016.
