

World Standards Day 2016 Video Competition

October 14 is a special day in standards development—it's World Standards Day! To celebrate, Standards Australia is hosting a video competition.

All you have to do is submit a video that demonstrates this year's theme of "standards build trust". Videos should be no longer than 30 seconds in length.

The winning video will receive $500. Runners-up will receive $150.

The deadline for submissions is 3 August 2016 (AEST). Submissions should be sent to mail@standards.org.au.

The video can be uploaded via a variety of methods:

1. www.dropbox.com with a link provided in your emailed application;
2. <https://www.wetransfer.com>;
3. <https://www.hightail.com>; or
4. By mailing a physical CD or USB containing the video to us. Our postal address is GPO Box 476 Sydney NSW 2001. The envelope should be addressed to Standards Australia's Young Leaders.

***By submitting your video you agree that you have read and accepted the Terms and Conditions on submitting video content *****

All submissions will be judged on their merits by a panel of Standards Australia Ambassadors to determine any prize winners. The judges' decisions are final and no correspondence will be entered into. Our judges include:

- Richard Brooks, Chairman, Standards Australia
- Megan Motto, Standards Australia Board Member
- John Furbank, Standards Development and Accreditation Committee Member
- Beer Opatsuan, Former Standards Australia Young Leader

Prize winners will be notified by email or telephone as soon as practical after judging ends. The winning entries will be published on our website and social media.

May the best video win!
