2017 NCC Information Seminars (February / March 2017)

...it's on!
SAVE THE DATE

Following the introduction of the 3-year amendment cycle, the ABCB will be undertaking presentations in all capital cities specifically designed for the practical application, clarification and understanding of the BCA.

The 2017 series will include presentations from the ABCB, Standards Australia and local Administrations.

Attendees in Sydney and Melbourne, will also have the option of attending an additional afternoon session "Pathways within a Performance-based Code" - dedicated to the use and development of performance-based solutions.

Further Information

Seminar attendance rates will be offered at the discounted rate of $160 online ($180 manual)

Optional afternoon Performance sessions in Sydney and Melbourne can be added to the morning for $49.

(Please note afternoon session fees are reduced to $49 for those attending a morning session).

Afternoon attendance only is provided at $160 online ($180 manual registration). GST inclusive.

A certificate of attendance can be supplied for those eligible for CPD points.

The 2017 NCC Information Seminars have been developed following industry response and are likely to be well attended with some venues booking out early.
