

FORUM: MEDICAL DEVICES

THURSDAY 6 OCTOBER 2016

Standards Australia in conjunction with the Medical Technology Association of Australia would like to invite stakeholders to participate in a half day forum to explore international standardisation and alignment within the area of medical devices.

The aim of the forum is to discuss harmonisation with international best practice and remove any barriers to trade.

The forum will explore and discuss the potential adoption of appropriate international standards within the sector.

Please feel free to extend the forum details to relevant stakeholders within your sector.
