CLARIFICATION REGARDING CERTAIN PLAYGROUND EQUIPMENT

Standards Australia wishes to address issues raised in a report by Channel Nine News (Brisbane) on Friday, 20 January 2012, with regard to certain playground equipment known as “Slalom Glider”, manufactured by Landscape Structures Inc.

It was reported that Standards Australia had suggested the playground equipment was non-compliant with the relevant Australian Standard.

Standards Australia is neither a regulator nor a certifier of products. Issues relating to the compliance of products with relevant Australian Standards are matters to be assessed by the responsible certifying body – not Standards Australia.

ENDS.
